

NOW, THEREFORE, the Iowa County Board of Supervisors hereby adopts as a County Ordinance, in pertinent parts Section 943.20 of the Wisconsin Statutes, which reads as follows:

AN ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT THEFT OF GOODS OR PROPERTY UNDER ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN IOWA COUNTY

(1) Whoever does any of the following may be penalized as provided in subsection (3).

(a) No person shall intentionally take and carry away, use, transfer, conceal, or retain possession of movable property of another without his consent and with intent to deprive the owner permanently of possession of such property, where the value is less than $100.00.

(2) Definitions. In this section:

(a) "Property" means all forms of tangible property, whether real or personal, without limitation including electricity, gas and documents which represent or embody a chose in action or other intangible rights.

(b) "Movable Property" is property whose physical location can be changed, without limitation including electricity and gas, documents which represent or embody intangible rights and things growing on, affixed to, or found in land.

(c) "Value" means the market value at the time of the theft or the cost to the victim of replacing the property within a reasonable time after the theft, whichever is less, but if the property stolen is a document evidencing a chose in action or other intangible right, value means either the market value of the chose in action or other right, or the intrinsic value of the document, whichever is greater. If the thief gave consideration for, or had a legal interest in, the stolen property, the amount of such consideration or value of such interest, shall be deducted from the total value of the property.

(d) "Property of Another" includes property in which the actor is a co-owner and property of a partnership of which the actor is a member, unless the actor and the victim are husband and wife.

(3) Whoever violates subsection (1)(a) of this Ordinance is subject to a forfeiture of not more than $200.00.
