News Release 03/07/11

On Monday March 7, 2011 at approximately 9:11 PM Smyrna Police responded to the Valero at 313 North DuPont Blvd. reference to a reported robbery that had just occurred. The clerk advised that when she opened the cash register a man reached across the counter and grabbed money from the register. The clerk attempted to stop him but was unable to do so. Witnesses stated that the man then fled the store in a South West direction on foot then entered a green vehicle. The vehicle was spotted by another officer parked on a nearby street and same appeared to be abandoned. The officer approached the vehicle to find a man laying down in the front seat. The man was taken into custody without incident and confirmed to be the suspect by surveillance video footage and witnesses. Angelo J. Lloyd, 45, of the 5000 block of Wheatleys Pond Rd. in Smyrna was charged with robbery 2nd degree and offensive touching. Lloyd was presented at Justice of the Peace Court #7 and released after posting a $1,250 secured bond.