OUR SENIOR CENTER PRIDE THE MELODEERS

For years our Senior Center singing group, The Melodeers, has been entertaining residents in nursing homes and other places where their music is appreciated and enjoyed. These men and woman are truly a sense of pride to our Center. Unfortunately, membership of the group is rapidly declining due to various reasons and new members are actively being sought. It is important that this group continue to be a sense of pride to our Community and to bring enjoyment to others.

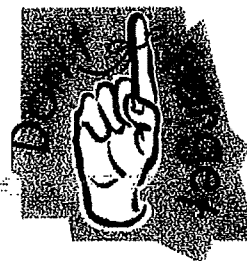

If you enjoy singing and can carry a tune, come to their rehearsals which are held on Thursday afternoons from September to mid-December. After a winter break, rehearsals are resumed from March to the mid-May, also on Thursdays. There is a sense of pride and great reward in knowing that your performance has brought such enjoyment to others.

Truly, Ed Gawitt
