

Amendatory Ordinance Number: 6-0104

Whereas, the Iowa County Board of Supervisors did adopt the Iowa County Zoning Ordinance, which includes regulation on signs;

Whereas, it is not intended that all types of signs require permits;

Whereas, after public meetings and a public hearing the Iowa County Zoning, Planning, Sanitation and Rural Planning Commission has developed an amendment for consideration by the Board that exempts the need of a permit for most real estate signs;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Iowa County Board of Supervisors do hereby adopt this resolution amending Sections 8.4A of the Iowa County Zoning Ordinance to read:

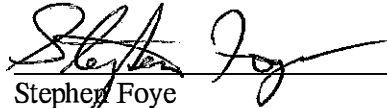

8.4 Allowed Signs

A. Signs Allowed in all Zoning Districts Without Permit.

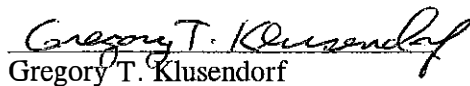

The following signs are allowed in all zoning districts without a permit, subject to the specific regulations provided:

- No sign allowed by this section shall be located closer than 10 feet from any public road right-of-way or property line or exceed 10 feet in height.
- Real estate signs, not to exceed eight (8) square feet in display area, which advertise the sale, rental, or lease of the premises upon which said signs are temporarily located.
- Real estate signs placed at intersections to direct traffic to property for sale shall be no greater than two (2) square feet in display area and no placed so as to interfere with traffic visibility, as determined by the Iowa County Office of Planning and Development.

Adopted this 16th day of February, 2004
