The following summary applies to the RESOLUTION FOR INCLUSION UNDER GROUP LIFE INSURANCE.

For many years, Iowa County has provided life insurance to employees through Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company. The policy is actually administered and regulated by the Wisconsin Department of Employee Trust Funds. A formal Resolution approved by the County Board of Supervisors is required to make any changes to existing employee benefits.

Iowa County currently offers:

- 1) Basic Plan, a term life policy paid for by the employee, but which requires that the County contributes 20% of the employee's insurance premium to provide post-retirement coverage. Benefit is 1 times earnings.
- 2) Spouse and Dependent Coverage, of which the employee pays the entire premium. Benefit is flat lump sum payments, in units of $5,000 and $10,000.

The Administrative Services Committee has recommended that the County Board approve that the following additional levels of life insurance be offered to all qualified employees, at no additional cost to Iowa County.

- 1) Supplemental Plan, which offers benefit of 1 times annual earnings. Policy terminates when an active employee reaches the age of 70. Employee pays entire premium.
- 2) Additional Plan, which offers up to 3 times annual earnings. Policy continues after age 70 for active employees and terminates when employee terminates employment. Employee pays entire premium.
