On 4/2/14 officers of the Ketchikan Police Department and the U.S. Postal Inspection Service completed an investigation in reference to the importation and distribution of Methamphetamine. Multiple search warrants were executed in the case and approximately 23 grams of Methamphetamine were seized from a shipment to a North Tongass Highway residence.

Christopher J. Kitsmiller (38 years of age) of Ketchikan was arrested and charged with Misconduct Involving a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree for the possession of Methamphetamine with the intent to distribute.

Kitsmiller, who has prior convictions in reference to the sales of controlled substances, was arraigned and held on $50,000.00 bail.
