MAYOR AND COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilmember Coose thanked everyone who showed up at the polls, and said he looks forward to what is going on and wished Marty lots of luck.

Councilmember Zenge also wished Ms. West lots of luck, and thanked everyone who voted. She congratulated those who were now on the Council.

October 13, 2014

Councilmember Karlson wished Ms. West well in all her new endeavors and hoped to hear about those endeavors so we could live vicariously through them. She pointed out there were several people running, and she thought that was good to have more people step up and want to take a role in this. She didn't feel it ended because certain people were elected, but rather that if people want to be involved there are always opportunities for that here not only at the podium, but in other committee settings and other things as well. She hoped our community would step up and help us with the decisions we have to make.

Councilmember Harris said he would miss Marty, and he thanked everyone who voted.

Councilmember Sivertsen thanked Ms. West for her services, noting it has been a pleasure serving with her over the past years. He also thanked everyone who ran for office, saying it is difficult to step out there and do it, and he appreciated the members of the community who get involved.

Councilmember West thanked everyone for their kind comments and agreed with Councilmembers Sivertsen and Karlson about the people who stepped up and volunteered to serve the community. She hoped they might run again if they desire or find places on committees where they can use their talents and energies.

Mayor Williams said we'd miss Councilmember West, and he thanked everyone who ran for Council and encouraged everyone to run again.

ADJOURNMENT

As there was no further business, the Council adjourned at 7:07 p.m.
