Aguilar.

Aguilar, situate 22 miles north of Trinidad, on the line of the Colorado Southern railroad in the Apishapa valley, and is surrounded by a fine agricultural country. The Apishapa, Trujillo and Jarosa valley farms make this their shipping and supply point. There are two coal mines in operation near the town. The Peerless mine employing 200 men and operated by the Northern Coal company; this mine was opened in 1889 and consists of 2,740 acres of coal land, yielding daily 700 tons of coal with development work now in progress which will before the end of the year double the capacity of the mine. In the Gonzales mine, near by the Gonzales Coal Mining company are operating. Large quantities of lumber are shipped from Aguilar. Two large lumber yards are handling from three to five millions feet of lumber each year, thus giving employment to a large number of men in the surrounding lumber camps as well as many teams and men to freight the lumber from the camps to this point. Aguilar has four general merchandise stores, one confectionary, several saloons, one new and second-hand furniture store, post-office, telegraph office, Pacific Express office, good hotel accommodations, a weekly newspaper in good standing with large county circulation, two blacksmith shops, one wholesale and retail feed and provision house, good bakery and barber shop, two livery stables and stage lines running stages between Aguilar and Hastings and meeting all trains, has good graded schools, school term averaging six months; the churches represented are Catholic and Episcopal, each with good buildings, and the Methodist Episcopal holding service in the school house. Has three secret societies, the Knights of Pythias, the Latin American Society and the Rathbone sisters, all having a good membership. Population 830. While Aguilar is a coal mining town at present it is surrounded by available lands for farming purposes. The division of this land into small tracts of from 10 to 40 acres and the development of water by storage reservoirs, ditches and windmills will in the near future make the surrounding country one of the most prosperous sections of Colorado, and Aguilar one of
