CHAPTER 16. PUBLIC PEACE MORALS AND WELFARE.

ARTICLE 1. OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE.

Section 16-1. Disturbing the public peace.

It shall be unlawful for any person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly to:

- (1) Make unreasonable noise in a public place or near a private residence that he/she has no right to occupy; or
- (2) Repeatedly insult, taunt or challenge another person in a manner likely to provoke a violent or disorderly response; or
- (3) Not being a peace officer, display a deadly weapon in a public place in a manner calculated to alarm; or
- (4) In a public place, threaten to assault in any manner another person; or
- (5) Strike, shove, kick or otherwise subject any person to unwanted physical contact.

Section 16-2. Unlawful assembly.

It shall be unlawful for any two (2) or more persons to assemble together with an intent to do any unlawful act, or being so assembled, to mutually agree to do any unlawful act with force or violence against the property of the City, or the person or property of another, or against the peace or to the terror of others; or make any movement or preparation therefor; and every person present at such an assembly who shall not endeavor to prevent the commission or perpetration of such unlawful act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. (Code 1958, Sec. 17-53.)

Section 16-3. Disturbing religious assembly.

It shall be unlawful for any person to disturb or disquiet any congregation or assembly of persons met for or engaged in religious worship by making any unreasonable loud and unnecessary noise, or by rude or indecent behavior, or discourse within their place of worship or so near it as to disturb the order and solemnity of the meeting. (Code 1958, Sec. 17-20.)

Section 16-4. Disturbing lawful assembly.

It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or interfere significantly with any lawful meeting, assembly, procession or gathering by physical action, verbal utterance or any other means, with the intent to prevent or disrupt said meeting, assembly, procession or gathering.

Section 16-5. Loitering - Police order to disperse.

- (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to loiter, loaf, wander, stand or remain idle either alone or in consort with others in a public place in such manner so as to:

(a) Obstruct any public street, public highway, public sidewalk or any other public place or building by hindering or impeding or tend to hinder or impede the free and uninterrupted passage of vehicles, traffic or pedestrians.

(b) Commit in or upon any public street, public highway, public sidewalk or any other public place or building any act or thing which is an obstruction or interference to the free and uninterrupted use of property or with any business lawfully conducted by anyone in or upon or facing or fronting on any such public street, public highway, public sidewalk or any other public place or building, all of which prevents the free and uninterrupted ingress, egress, and regress, therein, thereon and thereto.

(2) Any person who causes or commits any of the conditions enumerated in Subsection (1) herein and who fails or refuses to stop causing or committing such conditions and to move on or disperse as directed by a police officer or any other lawful authority shall be guilty of a violation of this Section.

Section 16-6. Schools, loitering about; disturbing, annoying or molesting students.

It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to loiter, idle, wander, stroll or play in or about any public, private or parochial school, college or seminary grounds or buildings, either on foot or in or on any vehicle, without having some lawful business therein or thereabout or in connection with such school or the employees thereof, or for any person to:

(1) Annoy, disturb or otherwise prevent the orderly conduct of classes and activities of any such school; or

(2) Annoy, disturb, assault or molest any student or employee of any such school or college while in any such school building, school grounds; or

(3) Conduct himself/herself in a lewd, wanton or lascivious manner in speech or behavior in or about any such school building or school grounds; or

(4) Park or move a vehicle at any time in the immediate vicinity of or on the grounds of any such school, college or seminary for the purpose of annoying or molesting the students or employees thereof or in an effort to induce, entice or invite students into such vehicles for immoral purposes. (Code 1958, Sec.17-46.1.)

Section 16-7. False impersonation of an officer.

It shall be unlawful for any person to impersonate a policeman or any City, County, State or Federal officer by wearing a badge or star, or by any acts or words which may lead others to believe that he/she is such officer when in fact he/she is not such officer. (Code 1958, Sec. 17-24.)

State law references: As to penalty under State law, 1973, Sec. 29-5-102.

Section 16-8. Resisting and obstructing a police officer.

(1) (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to resist arrest by a police officer of the City. A person commits the crime of resisting arrest if he/she knowingly prevents or attempts to prevent a police officer acting under color of his/her official authority from effecting an arrest of the actor or another by using or threatening to use physical force or violence against the police officer or another, or using any other means which creates substantial risk of causing physical injury to the police officer or another.

(b) It is no defense to a prosecution under this section that the police officer was attempting to make an arrest which in fact was unlawful, if he/she was acting under color of his/her official authority, and in attempting to make the arrest he/she was not resorting to unreasonable or excessive force giving rise to the right of self-defense. A police officer acts "under color of his/her official authority" when, in the regular course of assigned duties, he/she is called upon to make, and does make, a judgment in good faith based upon surrounding facts and circumstances that an arrest should be made by him/her.

(c) The term "police officer" as used in this section means a police officer, in uniform or, if out of uniform, one who has identified himself/herself by exhibiting his/her credentials as such police officer to the person whose arrest is attempted.

(2) (a) It is unlawful for a person to obstruct a police officer. A person commits the crime of obstructing a police officer, when, by using or threatening violence, force or physical interference, or an obstacle, he/she knowingly obstructs, impairs or hinders the enforcement of the penal law or the preservation of the peace by a police officer acting under color of his/her official authority.

(b) It is no defense to a prosecution under this section that the police officer was acting in an illegal manner, if he/she was acting under color of his/her official authority as defined in subsection (1)(b).

Section 16-9. Assisting prisoners to escape.

It shall be unlawful for any person to aid or assist any person in custody of a police officer, to escape from such custody or such confinement.

Section 16-10. Quarreling and fighting.

It shall be unlawful for any person to fight with another upon public property or upon private property which is open to view from any other place within the City or in the presence of persons not engaged in said fight. It shall not be unlawful to engage in a fight which is a contest of amateur or professional athletic skill.

Section 16-11. Noises - Scope of prohibition.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Section, the creation of any unreasonably loud, disturbing and unnecessary noises at any time is prohibited. Noises of such character and of such intensity and duration as to be detrimental to the public health and welfare is prohibited. Noises during the hours of 11:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. which unreasonably interfere with the sleep, comfort and repose of any individual are prohibited.

(2) The following acts are declared to be a violation of this Section; the enumeration shall not be deemed to be exclusive or in any way limited by the generality of Subsection (1):

(a) The keeping in any building or upon any premises of any animal or bird which by frequent or long continued noise shall disturb the comfort and repose of any person in the vicinity.

(b) The use of any automobile, motorcycle, streetcar or vehicle so out of repair, so loaded or in such a manner as to create loud and unnecessary grating, grinding, rattling or other noise.

(c) The sounding of any horn or signaling device on any automobile, motorcycle, streetcar or other vehicle on any street or public place except as a danger warning; the creation by means of any such signaling device of any unreasonably loud or harsh sound; and the sounding of any such device for an unnecessary and unreasonable period of time.

(d) The playing of any radio, phonograph or any musical instrument in any place in a residential or apartment-hotel district at any time between 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. in such manner or with such volume as to annoy or disturb any person thereby.

(e) The creation of any excessive noise on any street adjacent to any public or parochial school, college, or institution of learning while it is in session, which unreasonably interferes with the work of pupils or instructors; provided, conspicuous signs are displayed on such street indicating, in substance, that it is a school street and that quiet is required.

(f) The creation of loud and excessive noise in connection with loading or unloading any vehicle or the opening and destruction of bales, boxes, crates and containers.

(g) The playing of any game not for public exhibition, which results in the creation of any noise or disturbance that in any manner unreasonably interferes with the health, comfort or repose of any inhabitants of the City. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-13.)

Section 16-12. Exceptions from provisions.

(1) Nothing contained in Section 16-11 shall be construed to prevent the production of music with any military, civic, or authorized parade, funeral procession or religious ceremony, or any musical performance conducted with the consent of municipal authority, or to prevent public exhibitions of sports or other events.

(2) The provisions of Section 16-11 shall not apply to police officers or firemen in the discharge of their official duties. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-14.)

Section 16-13. Throwing stones.

It shall be unlawful for any person to throw any stone or other missile at or upon any building, tree or other public or private property, or at any person. (Code 1958, Sec. 17- 50.)

Section 16-14. Participating in or inciting a riot or disturbance.

It is unlawful for any person who collects or assembles in crowds and bodies to become involved in or incite or attempt to incite a riot or public disturbance.

Section 16-41. Poison to be labeled.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, give or deliver any deadly poison, knowing it to be such, without marking it in legible letters "Poison". (Code 1958, Sec. 16- 18.)

State law reference: As to State requirements, see C.R.S. 1973, Sec. 12-22-119.

Section 16-42. Tainted provisions not to be sold.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale any diseased, tainted or putrid meat, poultry, fish, game or provisions of any kind or any decayed fruits or vegetables. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-20.)

Section 16-43. Unwholesome provisions not to be sold.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale in any market or elsewhere within the City, any emaciated, tainted or putrid meat, provisions or vegetables, which may be deemed unwholesome. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-21.)

Section 16-44. Cleaning of cesspools, grease traps and privy vaults; when required.

All grease traps and privy vaults shall be cleaned once a year or oftener if ordered to do so by the Health Department, and all cesspools shall be cleaned when their contents are up to the inlet and the condition created by the failure to clean shall constitute a nuisance. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-3.)

Section 16-45. Discontinuance of cesspools, grease traps and privy vaults; filling.

Whenever any grease trap, privy vault or cesspool is discontinued, it shall be cleaned to the bottom and filled up with earth or other suitable material and such work shall be done under the supervision of the Health Department. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-4.)

Section 16-46. Removal of contents of cesspools, grease traps and privy vaults.

The contents of privy vaults, grease traps, cesspools or accumulation of garbage, within the limits of the City, shall not be removed or be transported through any street, alley or public place except in the most sanitary manner, through or by means of airtight suction tanks, if soft and mixed with water, and if solid or dry, in sheet steel tight tanks in such manner as shall prevent the escape of any noxious or offensive odors and preserve such contents from sight or exposure during transportation. All tools, appliances, and vehicles used in such removal shall be kept and maintained in a good sanitary condition, subject to the inspection of the Health Department at all times. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-5.)

Section 16-47. Substances of abuse.

(1) As used in this Ordinance, the term "Substance of Abuse" shall mean any toxic, noxious, or volatile chemical, compound or substance containing toluene, acetone, or other solvent or chemical having the property of releasing toxic vapors.

(2) No person shall, for the purpose of causing a condition of intoxication, euphoria, excitement, exhilaration, stupefaction or dulling of the senses or nervous system, intentionally smell, inhale or ingest the fumes from any substance of abuse, provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to the inhalation of any anesthesia for medical or dental purposes.

(3) No person shall, for the purpose of violating or aiding another to violate any provision of this Ordinance, intentionally possess, buy, sell, transfer possession, or receive possession of any substance of abuse.

(4) Any person, other than a minor, violating any provision of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or be imprisoned for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any minor violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be dealt with in accordance with the Children's Code as adopted by the State of Colorado.

(5) This section shall have no application to any alcoholic or fermented malt beverage, nor to any drug, compound, or substance regulated under Title 12 or Title 18 of the Colorado Revised Statutes as amended.

DIVISION 2. SMOKING IN PUBLIC PLACES AND PLACES OF EMPLOYMENT.

Section 16-48. Legislative intent.

In order to serve the public health, safety and general welfare, it is the declared policy of the City of Trinidad to prohibit smoking in accordance with Colorado Revised Statutes, Section 25-14-201 et. seq., and to recognize and enforce violations of the Colorado Law.

Section 16-49 through Section 16-55 Repealed. (Ord. 1820, eff. 10/13/06)

ARTICLE 7. NUISANCES.

Section 16-56. Discharging foul substances into street.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to allow to be discharged or permit to flow from any still house, workshop, manufacture or other house or place owned or kept by him/her, foul or nauseous liquor or substance of any kind, upon any street or alley or other public place, so as to be a threat to the health or safety of any person, or offensive to persons living in the vicinity.

Section 16-57. Accumulating offensive substances.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to permit or cause any grease traps, cesspool matter, animal or human excrement, garbage, refuse or filth to be deposited, buried, or allowed to accumulate in or upon any premises owned or kept by him/her or to deposit, bury or allow to accumulate such offensive substances on any sidewalk, alley, premises, vacant lot or other place within the City.

Section 16-58. Offensive cellars; sewers.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to permit any cellar, vault, private drain, pool, privies, sewer or grounds upon any premises belonging to, or occupied by him/her to become nauseous, foul or injurious to the public health.

Section 16-59. Accumulation of junk.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to permit old rope, old iron, brass, copper, tin, lead, old lumber, construction material or debris, bricks, building remnants, rags, empty bottles, broken glass, paper, bagging or other similar junk to be deposited, stored or allowed to accumulate in or on any vacant lot, or in or on any other premises within the City. Any person who shall create, cause to be created, maintain, continue, increase or permit any nuisance specified in this Section, shall be deemed guilty of a nuisance.

Section 16-60. Exclusion from provisions.

The provisions of Section 16-59 shall not apply to the conduct, operation or establishment of a junk shop or junk yard business duly licensed as such by the City.

Section 16-61. Barbed wire and other projections into thoroughfares.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to put upon, keep or maintain any barb, barbed wire, sharpened nails or sharpened thing of metallic substance upon any fence, cellar guard or window guard, railing or bannister, that may front upon or that may be erected or constructed upon any street, avenue, lane, alley, building or sidewalk so that it shall project or extend beyond the surface of the wood or other material of which such fence, cellar guard or window guard, railing or bannister may be constructed.

Section 16-62. Placing obstructions on public right-of-way.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to place or assist in placing or cause to be placed in or upon any street, alley, highway, or in or upon the track or right-of-way of any railway company, any construction material, building, fence, rubbish or other obstruction of any kind or description without obtaining the prior consent of the City Manager, and no such consent shall authorize the obstruction of more than one-half (1/2) the width of any street.

Section 16-63. Dangerous or hazardous conditions.

It shall be unlawful and a nuisance for any person to permit any building, structure or land owned or occupied by him/her which is accessible to the public, to become or remain in such a condition as to present a substantial danger or hazard to the public health or safety.

Section 16-63.5 Broken windows.

It is unlawful and a nuisance for any person to permit any windows on the ground level story of any building or structure within the City to remain broken or removed, or otherwise in a state of disrepair. A window shall be considered broken or in a state of disrepair if glass is actually missing from the window area. A cracked window shall not constitute a nuisance. Any person who shall create, cause to be created, maintain, continue, increase, or permit any such nuisance, shall be deemed guilty of a nuisance. No such nuisance shall be considered abated unless and until such broken or removed window has been replaced by glass or other translucent material. (Ord. 1602, eff., 3/1/99)

Section 16-64. Notice to abate nuisance.

Any person who violates either of sections 16-57, 16-58, 16-59, 16-61, 16-62, 16-63, or 16-63.5 of this Code shall be notified in writing by the City Manager or his/her designee of such violation. Such written notice shall identify the nuisance and order the person in violation to abate or remedy such nuisance within a reasonable period of time from the date the notice is issued, to be determined by the City Manager or his/her designee. The violator shall be served with such written notice by either first class mail, certified mail, or personal service. A failure to comply with such notice shall subject such person in violation to punishment as provided in Section 1-8 of this Code for each day he/she neglects or refuses to abate such nuisance beyond the period of time he/she is given to abate the nuisance. In addition, if the nuisance is not abated within the time specified in the notice, the City Manger may then proceed to have the nuisance abated. (Ord. 1602, eff., 3/13/99)

Section 16-65. Assessment of costs and collection of assessments.

(1) Upon abatement of a nuisance by City forces or by independent contractors employed by the City for such purpose, a charge shall be made against the owner of the property or any other person who created or permitted the creation of such nuisance. The charge shall be actual costs for labor, equipment and materials, or the contract price of an independent contractor, together with a $1,000 administrative fee thereon for administrative supervision, inspection, and noticing. (Ord. 2050, Repealed and re-enacted, eff. 12-01-17)

(2) The City Clerk, as soon as practicable after such charge has accrued, shall send by first class mail, addressed to the owner of such property and/or any other person who has created or permitted the creation of such nuisance, at the last known address of such person or persons, a notice of such charge, which notice shall contain a description of the lots or tracts of land, the name of the owner or owners and the amount of the assessment.

(3) It shall be the duty of the owner or any other person who has created or permitted the creation of such nuisance, to pay such charge within twenty (20) days after the mailing of such notice, and upon his/her failure to do so, provided the notice has been mailed to the owner, such charge shall be certified to the officer having custody of the tax list, in the same manner as the City taxes are certified to such officer, to be collected according to the laws of the State of Colorado for the assessment and collection of general taxes, including the laws for the sale of property for taxes and the redemption thereof.

(4) Provided such notice has been mailed to the property owner, such charge shall become a lien upon the respective lots or tracts of land at the time the City Clerk certifies such charge to the officer having custody of the tax list.

(5) The City may also proceed to collect such charge by obtaining a judgment in the County or

District Court against the property owner or any other person who has created or permitted the creation of such nuisance, and enforcing such judgment through such means as are provided by law.

Section 16-66. General notice to clean up.

Whenever the Mayor deems it necessary to give a general notice to all the inhabitants and the property owners to clean up and remove from their premises all filth, garbage, excrement, rubbish and refuse matter of every kind, a formal notice issued by the City and published in a newspaper of general circulation in the City shall be deemed sufficient and legal notice; and any person failing to comply with the requirements of such notice shall be liable to the penalties prescribed in this Code for maintaining a nuisance. (Code 1958, Sec. 16-26.)

Section 16-67. Summary abatement of nuisances.

The City Manager, if he/she should determine that the existence of a nuisance is an immediate threat to the public health, safety or welfare, shall have the power to proceed to have the nuisance abated, without prior notice to the property owner or other person who created or permitted the creation of the nuisance.

ARTICLE 8. PENALTIES

Section 16-68. Penalty for violations by minors.

Whenever, in this Chapter of this Code, any act or failure to do a required act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense or a misdemeanor, the violation of any such provision by a person under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00), notwithstanding any other penalty for such offense which may be provided elsewhere in this Code. (Ord. 1674, 3 eff., 10-26-01)
