

The image shows the front and back covers of an antique book, bound together at a central spine. Both covers are decorated with a traditional marbled paper pattern, often referred to as a 'stone' or 'shell' pattern, featuring a dense array of irregular, rounded shapes in various shades of grey, black, and white. The central spine is made of a dark, textured material, possibly leather or cloth, and shows the binding structure with several visible raised bands. In the center of the right-hand cover, the number '7828' is handwritten in a dark ink or paint. The corners of the covers are slightly worn and rounded.
