

The area along the Willamette River just west of what is now the City of Keizer has long been considered a significant and strategic location. The area was one of the first surveyed land claims in Oregon, and is now a unique and beautiful environment in a quickly urbanizing region. In keeping with national trends and local desires, the potential for a breathtaking park is now being discovered and pursued.

TRAIL MAP

*Spread the meadows and the cornfields,
And beyond them stood the forest,
Stood the groves of singing pine-trees,
Green in Summer, white in Winter,
Ever sighing, ever singing.
And the pleasant water-courses,
You could trace them through the valley,
By the rushing in the Spring-time,
By the alders in the Summer,
By the white fog in the Autumn,
By the black line in the Winter.*

Song of Hiawatha
