FREE Camping Opportunity for Youth Ages 6 – 17!

The Salvation Army's Long Point Camp was founded in 1953 and is situated on 138 acres on Seneca Lake. The camp features a gymnasium, pool, waterfront & boating area, playground, dining hall, campfire circle, craft area and high, quality cabins for the campers. There is NO cost for families to send their kids to camp and there is No income limits!

There are two camp offerings this year with both beginning July 17-22, 2019: Camp offerings include: The Teen Wilderness Camp for teens ages 13 to 17 (teens will be sleeping in tents and cooking all meals outside). Youth Camp for youth ages 6-12. Youth campers will utilize cabins, where there is a separate room for camp counselors and each cabin has an indoor bathroom. Long Point Camp is perfectly geared for kids that may not otherwise be able to enjoy a summer camp experience and making new friends. Long Point Camp is a member of the Christian Camp and Conference Association, accredited by the American Camping Association and is licensed through the New York State Department of Health. Transportation to the July 17-22 camp will be provided by South Lewis Central School District.

The Salvation Army will be hosting an Open House on Sunday, April 28th from 2pm to 5pm, all are welcome to tour the camp. For additional information please contact Samuel Reeder, Regional Services Coordinator at Samuel.Reeder@USE.SalvationArmy.org.

Please go to www.longpointcamp.org to enroll through the on-line application that needs to be completed and submitted by July 5th.
