Two Arrested After Fighting with Officers

Around 4:50 p.m. Thursday, Wheeling Police officers were sent to Heritage Port after receiving a call that two people were drinking, possibly using drugs and bothering others.

When officers arrived, Ryan Patrick Fadul, 31 of Wheeling started fighting officers and resisting arrest. Additional officers arrived on scene to assist as Fadul became erratic.

Officers investigating discovered drugs on the scene, including marijuana, LSD, drug instruments and several alcoholic drinks.

Fadul is charged with possession with intent to deliver LSD and battery on an officer.

In addition to arresting Fadul, officers arrested Samantha Jean Thompson, 29 of Moundsville. Thompson is facing a charge of simple possession of marijuana and having an open container. Donald Woods Adams, 55 of Rayland was issued a citation on simple possession of marijuana.
